RESPONSE UNDER RULE 37 C.F.R. §1.312

Sir:

The Examiner is thanked for the courtesy extended during the interview held on January 31, 2001. During this interview, we discussed some proposed claim language which would limit the invention to printing the first type of indicia and the 5 second type of indicia on the same combination press. As is clear from the allowed claim 16, the method of printing according to the invention is not limited to printing first and second type of indicia on the same combination press. The Examiner's Amendment accompanying the Notice of Allowability revised the claim to instead positively recite "registering the variable printing process with the repetitive printing" which, again, need not be performed on the same combination press.

Docket No. D1005/192221
